

Cambridge Property Group LLC

Supports The Living Classrooms

Night at The Yards is a benefit in support of the innovative hands-on education and job-training programs provided by Living Classrooms. Living Classrooms works primarily with youth and young adults living in high risk environments in the Washington, DC and Baltimore areas. Living Classrooms gives youth the skills needed to turn their lives around, continue their education and achieve success in the workplace.

